

Lord

G C G
Let me tell you with all my honesty
C G D G
About some very important man
G C G
They meet in a bar almost every Saturday
C G D G
Little place called "The Firmaments End"

G C G
Jesus Christ with his long brown hair
C G D G
Stands at the bar and drinks red wine
G C G
While Moses and the Holy Ghost huddle in the corner
C G D G
Playing dominoes and pissed on mild

G C G C G D G
Oh Lord, oh Lord Lord Lord, ring up the changes and save yourself

G C G
The devil comes in and he's drunk as a skunk again
C G D G
Living down old Michigan way
G C G
He's got himself a job as a Bible salesman
C G D G
Although converting young Mormons just ain't the same

G C G
As way back in the eleventh century
C G D G
Laying down the company law
G C G
Mohammed and Allah are having fun right here
C G D G
Laughing with Buddha till the cows come home

G C G C G D G
Oh Lord, oh Lord Lord Lord, ring up the changes and save yourself

G C G
Mother Nature's outside and she bangs on the door
C G D G
She says "Boys will you let me come into your club?"
G C G
Martin Luther stands up and says "Freedom's for free,
C G D G
let the old girl in and the drinks are on me!"

G C G
Well I got no time to be crucified,
C G D G
And I know that I oughta like lamb to the slaughter
G C G
The Big Man arrives, he says "Who's for wine?
C G D G
Everybody knows that it's love that's divine!"

G C G C G D G
Oh Lord, oh Lord Lord Lord, ring up the changes and save yourself

© Ian Prowse

www.amsterdam-pele.co.uk

www.amsterdam-music.com